

Review Belief Systems

Directions: Please group the terms listed below with their correct religion / belief system.

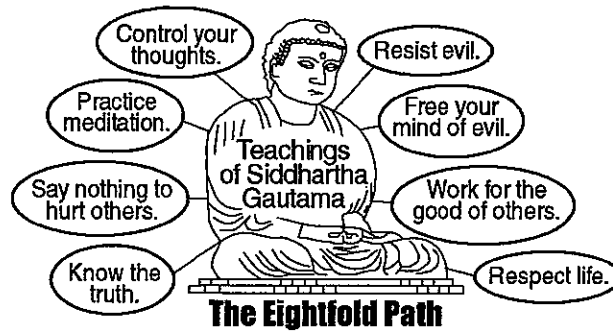

- | | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|-----------------------|
| Nirvana | Ten Commandments | Five Pillars of Faith |
| Mecca | Bible | Torah |
| Filial Piety | Kami | Ten Commandments |
| Qu'ran | Dharma | Reincarnation |
| Eightfold Path | Five Relationships | Mosque |
| Cathedral | Polytheistic | Monotheistic |
| Pagoda | Synagogue | Mohammad |
| Jesus | Buddha | Monotheistic |
| Siddhartha Guatama | Confucius | Vedas |
| Karma | Four Noble Truths | Abraham |
| Ganges River | Jerusalem | Jerusalem |
| Sacred Cow | Philosophy | Polytheistic |
| Monotheistic | | |

Christianity	Judaism	Islam
Hinduism	Buddhism	Confucianism
Shintoism

Name: _____

- 1) Christianity, Islam, and Judaism are similar in that they all ask their followers to
- A) strive for nirvana
B) follow a code of behavior
C) believe in reincarnation
D) practice polytheism

2)

SOURCE: The Human Experience, Glencoe

The diagram illustrates the key concepts of which religion?

- A) Buddhism
B) Hinduism
C) Christianity
D) Islam
- 3) d Sunnis and Shiites have different views about who should lead the Muslim faith.
d Today some Hindus follow caste rules more closely than others do.
d Most Buddhists belong to one of two main sects.
d Christianity is practiced by both Catholics and Protestants.

Which generalization is supported by the information in these four statements?

- A) Religion is becoming less important to people.
B) A hierarchy of leadership exists in all religions.
C) A belief in a god is common to all religions.
D) In many religions, a range of beliefs often exists.
- 4) The terms Brahma, dharma, and moksha are most closely associated with which religion?
A) Judaism
B) Islam
C) animism
D) Hinduism
- 5) Speaker A: We must return to the ideas of the Bible. We should encourage people to read and interpret religious scripture for themselves.
Speaker B: Our people worship many gods, who control the peoples' activities, such as birth, death, and commerce.
Speaker C: Our people received the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai. We are few in number, but we will bring these commandments to all people.
Speaker D: We trace our religion's birth to the flight of our greatest prophet from Mecca to Medina.

Which of the given speakers refers to the establishment of Islam?

- A) A
B) B
C) C
D) D
- 6) Which term is used to describe the spread of Buddhism from India through Southeast Asia?
A) ethnocentrism
B) isolation
C) cultural diffusion
D) imperialism
- 7) Which is a valid statement about the role of religion in modern India?
A) Religion and politics are rigidly separated.
B) Religion has lost most of its influence and importance.
C) Buddhism has replaced Hinduism as the major religion.
D) Religious beliefs and social structure are closely related.
- 8) A goal common to Confucianism, Taoism, and Buddhism is to
A) establish peace and harmony
B) return the power of the emperors
C) promote individual artistic creativity
D) provide the basis for democratic government

- 9) Confucianism emphasizes the idea that
- A) each person has an important responsibility to family and society
 - B) government should own the means of production
 - C) economic success is more desirable than knowledge and learning
 - D) an individual's personal goals are more important than the goals of the group